

Appendix 5

Question List Shortlisted in the Interim Priority Setting Stage and Brought Forward to the Final Workshop

- How can geriatric-related knowledge among healthcare providers be improved and applied when caring for older adults?
- What information should healthcare providers provide to and discuss with older adults and their families to best improve end-of-life care?
- What strategies best allow older adults to remain independent for as long as possible?
- How can behaviours of dementia (e.g., aggression) be most effectively managed through non-pharmacological approaches?
- How can availability of services to support older adults to live in their own homes best be increased?
- How can healthcare encounters be restructured to allow older adults sufficient time with providers to discuss complex concerns in one appointment?
- What is the most effective strategy for information sharing and collaboration between healthcare providers of different disciplines at different facilities in order to ensure continuity of care?
- What are the optimal ways to ensure healthcare providers take into consideration the goals and wishes of the older adult during care/treatment?
- What strategies most improve the environment of continuing care to make it feel more home-like for residents?
- What are effective strategies to allow older adults to remain in their own homes for as long as possible?
- What educational strategies are most effective in improving the knowledge of staff working in continuing care setting?
- What can be done to increase availability of dementia-related care and services for older adults?
- How can seniors with dementia be better supported by hospital staff when visiting the emergency department?
- What strategies would enable caregivers of older adults to have time away from employment in order to provide care?
- In what ways can the healthcare system become more proactive, instead of reactive, in addressing and encouraging prevention of disease/disability?
- How can quality of care in continuing care settings best be improved?
- What strategies are most effective in preventing and/or delaying the onset of dementia?
- What interventions and programs best enable older adults to more easily navigate the healthcare system?
- What are effective strategies allowing people to die on their own terms?
- What are the most effective programs and services which can be provided to caregivers to combat burnout and stress when caring for older adults?
- What is the most effective strategy to ensure an optimal transition between care settings for older adults?
- In what ways can healthcare service accessibility for older adults living in a rural community be improved?